If you could compare yourself with any animal, which would it be and why?

If I could compare myself to an animal, it will be a dog. I myself as a dog lover I perceive myself as caring, protective and loyal to my love ones and friends. I am also very compassionate and intuitive of their feelings. If they are feeling down I want to uplift their moods and make them happy. I want them to be always enjoying their lives at their fullest. I don't want them to be hurt or judged by anybody who does not know them well. I want them to stay healthy as we are in this pandemic today, health is everything.

Give us three items you cannot live without and tell us why.

If I will be able to choose three items I cannot live with it will be clothes, books and cellphone. Clothes as a necessity will give us warmth and shield us from cold. As a part of our basic necessities, clothes is a must in our daily lives. We can learn a lot from books as we live our lives. From learning something new to inspire us to create new things, books have given us and inspire us to what we have today. Cellphone comes a necessity in this generation as it gives us the easy life from communication to easy use of different application that helps us from our daily lives.
