What was the last gift you gave someone?

The last gift I gave was a Polo Shirt. I had given the Polo Shirt to my father as a Christmas gift. I was planning of buying something else for him that Christmas but since I was unemployed I only manage to buy him a Polo Shirt which he really loved to wear. Besides that, I also gave him cash which made him a lot happier since what he really wanted was to save money to help our members at church that needs help.

If you could create a fictional company to make the world a better place, what would that company do?

I think the company I want to create is a company that will help people to have a job. Any company that will be profitable nt only for me but rather a company that's main purpose is to help people earn to sustain especially for today's crisis. And since I took an Accounting course, I would really want a company that caters accounting or bookeeping needs of people but has other division also so that not only those with other education can apply.
