What was the last gift you gave someone?

The last gifts I gave were Christmas gifts for my 2 younger sisters. A baby wearing cloth for the elder of the two and a comfortable oversized pajama shirt for the youngest. One appreciated the gift very much while the latter found my gift to be cute. As I mentioned earlier, the gifts were my Christmas gifts for them but due to the long shipping time, the gifts arrived two weeks after the holiday. Never the less it was all worth it when I saw their smiling faces.

If you could create a fictional company to make the world a better place, what would that company do?

If I could create a fictional company, it would be non-profit and focused on supporting families in need. Focused on creating jobs, providing support, training, and spiritual formation to relocation sites so that the new relocated would be less tempted to leave as they can find livelihood within the community as well as gain a much needed support group that they could rely on. From there, the people can better stand on their own two feet and live their lives, support their families, and their dreams with dignity and a more positive outlook.
