Talk about one of your great qualities that others don't always appreciate.

One of my great qualities that others don't always appreciate is that I care too much. Caring for others is a great way to show that you love them but sometimes caring too much would let others think that you are weak and too nosey. They often mistaken my thoughtfulness or caring as being nosey and annoying. But if I would given a chance to change it, I won't because that's the way I show my love for other people and to show them that I always care and will always be here for them whenever they feel alone or if they have a problem.

Which would you choose --- a fit body or a fit mind?

If I would be given a chance to choose if I would have a fit body or a fit mind I will choose a fit mind. It is very important to have a healthy mind or a fit mind nowadays that can handle the stress and task that you will encounter everyday. A healthy mind will give you a lot of opportunities because nowadays job opportunities are looking for a fit mind or healthy mind that can handle the stress and tasks of a job. What will you do if you have a fit body but don't have a healthy mind? What kind of job will you have? It is really important to have a fit mind because it tells us who we are.
